“Keith, you've applied your vision and determination as a filmmaker and documentarian to the overwhelming and never ending pursuit of helping, informing or celebrating your fellow brothers and sisters. It does not go unnoticed my friend. Very happy for you putting this together with the myriad demands and setbacks that go with any creative endeavor and very proud to be a small part of the message as well as a long time friend to you. I very much admire you man, and how you're conducting what is a life well lived.”

“You are bringing comfort and help to people who are hurting. I know many people are grateful for your work. Nicely done Keith.”

“You continue to capture, explain and share the phenomenal feelings that perplex us. While we are overwhelmed by the experiences, we find ourselves failing to construct the words to explain . . . so we don't engage in the conversation. But your videos touch us and shine the light on our shared human relations. It's an award winner!”
